

EVERYBODY'S STARTING IN THE SAME PLACE

If you don't know a lot about United Mission, don't worry: you're not alone. United Mission has been a vital part of ABCUSA's funding structure for a very long time, but it hasn't gotten quite as much time in the spotlight as many of our other initiatives and ministries. The goal of this series of conversations is to ensure every American Baptist understands what United Mission does and why it's so important. It's a journey of learning and discovery that we're taking together.

WE'RE ALL IN THIS AS ONE

As American Baptists, we know that God's family extends beyond our local churches. United Mission gives us the opportunity to demonstrate our caring for and commitment to congregations on the regional, national and global level. United Mission giving and receiving are inextricably linked: Two-thirds of all United Mission dollars are dedicated to regional initiatives that impact local churches, including children's and youth ministries, leadership support, and discipleship resources.

EVERYBODY COUNTS

We are all committed to serving as the hands and feet of Christ. Deciding the best way to make use of the resources we've been blessed with does not rest solely on the shoulders of church leadership. Every congregation has its own unique process for determining what giving will be done, and every one of us, as American Baptists, has both the opportunity and the responsibility to be part of that process. That's why this discussion is happening in many different settings, at many different times; that way, everybody can take part. That's why we're having this discussion now, to help you make informed, spirit-led decisions.

EVERYBODY'S STARTING IN THE SAME PLACE

If you don't know a lot about United Mission, don't worry: you're not alone. United Mission has been a vital part of ABCUSA's funding structure for a very long time, but it hasn't gotten quite as much time in the spotlight as many of our other initiatives and ministries. The goal of this series of conversations is to ensure every American Baptist understands what United Mission does and why it's so important. It's a journey of learning and discovery that we're taking together.

WE'RE ALL IN THIS AS ONE

As American Baptists, we know that God's family extends beyond our local churches. United Mission gives us the opportunity to demonstrate our caring for and commitment to congregations on the regional, national and global level. United Mission giving and receiving are inextricably linked: Two-thirds of all United Mission dollars are dedicated to regional initiatives that impact local churches, including children's and youth ministries, leadership support, and discipleship resources.

EVERYBODY COUNTS

We are all committed to serving as the hands and feet of Christ. Deciding the best way to make use of the resources we've been blessed with does not rest solely on the shoulders of church leadership. Every congregation has its own unique process for determining what giving will be done, and every one of us, as American Baptists, has both the opportunity and the responsibility to be part of that process. That's why this discussion is happening in many different settings, at many different times; that way, everybody can take part. That's why we're having this discussion now, to help you make informed, spirit-led decisions.